ART TRAINING - Schools, Scholarships, etc.:

I have had no formal art training in fundamentals of drawing, composition, etc. Until recently photography has been a hobby for me, as a sideline ~~and~~ to more "intellectual" pursuits. I've taken photography courses at various universities and this past January attended the Maine Photographic Workshop, which was my first in-depth immersion in photography (or, for that matter, any art form). Informally, I have learned much from gifted people I've met in various places (for example, in the kitchen of a camp I worked at, etc.), by keeping my eyes, ears + mind open.
